

Castle Tour Spreewald | self-guided | Germany - 7 Days

The Spreewald is a unique cultural landscape in the heart of Europe. The special feature is its countless rivers, which form an extensive water labyrinth and provide a characteristic flora and fauna. Due to its flat landscape profile and its very well developed cycle paths, there is pure cycling fun. In addition to the impressive nature, four castles form the historical framework. As a highlight, you will be at the family seat of the Counts of Lynar (only in Cat. II) and experience the special magic of the Spreewald on a boat trip. Look forward to your "companion", the cycling cucumber!

With the varied tour through the "Venice of the East" you can start your tour today and expand it by 35 km. From the castle you cycle to Straupitz, where the imposing Schinkelkirche and the Triple Dutch Mill are waiting for you. Try the healthy Straupitzer linseed oil. Continue through a vast forest and meadow landscape to Lübben, the gateway to the Unterspreewald. In Lübben Castle, the coat of arms hall is worth seeing and the castle island invites you to linger and relax. Overnight Lübben or Unterspreewald.

Day 4: Lübben - Lübbenau approx. 47-65 km / 29-40 miles

From Lübben you cycle through a beautiful pond landscape to Schlepzig, the most beautiful village in the Unterspreewald. Many sights such as the Farmers' Museum, a brewery and distillery, a small ferry port and the visitor centre of the UNESCO Biosphere Reserve can be visited. Afterwards, a detour to Lake Köthener see is a good way for all bathing enthusiasts, before it goes back to Lübben through the Marecan pine forest. Along the Spree, Lübbenau is no longer far away, where you will meet the colourful market at the Great Harbour. Overnight schloss Lübbenau.

Day 5: Day of rest or tour Lübbenau, approx. 21 km / 13 miles

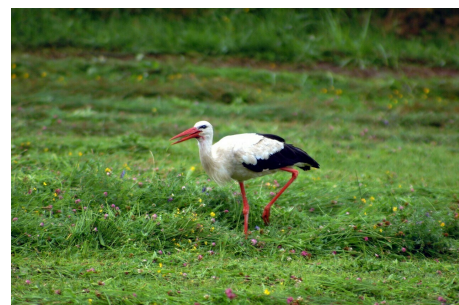

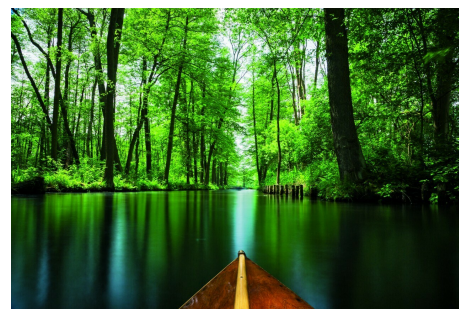

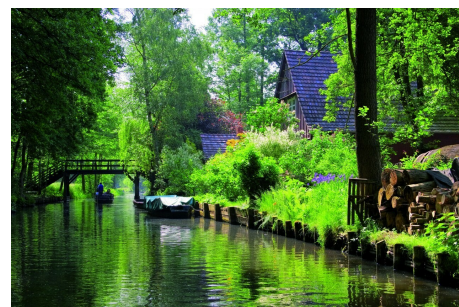

In the secret capital of the Spreewald, a relaxing day of rest or a small bike ride around Lübbenau awaits you today. On a 2-hour boat trip through the Hochwald you will experience the Spreewald from its most beautiful side. You should also plan some time for Lehde, the pocket-sized lagoon village (Fontane). In the Cucumber Museum, everything revolves around the well-known Spreewald vegetables, which you can also taste there. In the open-air museum, on the other hand, time seems to stand still and you immerse yourself in the life of the Sorbs in the 19th century. Overnight as the day before.

Day 6: Lübbenau - Cottbus approx. 51 km / 32 miles

On the way to Leipe you cycle on one of the most beautiful sections of the trail about 5 km along rivers through the shady high forest. In Vetschau you will find the 16th-century town castle, where you can admire the magnificent Knight's Hall. But also the German-Wendische Doppelkirche as well as the White Stork Information Center are worth seeing. On the way, you can stop by many quaint inns and taste regional delicacies. A special experience is offered by the old Spreewald station in Burg, where the drinks are brought to the table by rail. Overnight Cottbus.

Day 7: Departure from Cottbus

After breakfast, you will travel home on your own or extend your stay.
