

Moselle river biketour 6 days | self-guided | Trier to Koblenz - 6 Days

Embarking on a wine tour along the Moselle Cycle Path promises an unforgettable journey filled with natural beauty, urban charm, and mysterious allure. Stretching for a total of 195 kilometers across 4 stages between Trier and the mouth of the Moselle in Koblenz, this scenic route offers a plethora of highlights waiting to be discovered. As you pedal along in close proximity to the river, you'll find yourself surrounded by breathtaking landscapes, lush vineyards, and quaint villages that dot the picturesque Moselle Valley. Whether you're admiring the stunning vistas from the saddle of your bike or stopping to explore charming towns along the way, there's never a dull moment on the Moselle Cycle Path.

One of the highlights of the route is its accessibility, with mostly asphalted paths that run separately from the main roads, offering a safe and enjoyable cycling experience for riders of all levels. With relatively flat terrain and minimal gradients, the focus here isn't on sporting ambition, but rather on the sheer pleasure of the journey itself. From savoring the flavors of local wines to immersing yourself in the rich history and culture of the region, every moment on the Moselle Cycle Path is an opportunity for experience and enjoyment. So, hop on your bike and get ready to discover the beauty and charm of the Moselle Valley as you pedal along this iconic cycling route.

Discover the Douro Valley – one of Europe's most spectacular wine regions. A guided cruise along the Douro leads you through deep river gorges, terraced vineyards, and ancient olive and almond groves — a landscape shaped by more than 2,000 years of wine culture and honored as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Exploring this region by electric bike lets you enjoy the scenery effortlessly, riding through villages, vineyards, and historic Port wine estates. It's an unforgettable journey through the heart of Portugal's most celebrated wine valley.

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival - Trier

Arriving in the oldest city of Germany, Trier, offers a journey through time spanning over 2000 years of history. As you embark on a city round trip, you'll be immersed in the rich tapestry of the city's past, discovering world-known attractions that have stood the test of time.

From the iconic Porta Nigra, a majestic Roman gate that serves as a testament to Trier's ancient origins, to the awe-inspiring Roman amphitheater and the magnificent Imperial Baths, every corner of the city is steeped in history and intrigue. After a day of exploration, you can unwind and indulge in the unique flavors of Riesling wine in one of Trier's traditional wine taverns. As you sip on this renowned wine, you'll be transported back in time, immersing yourself in the atmospheric surroundings that echo with centuries of history and tradition. With its blend of ancient landmarks, vibrant culture, and world-class wine, Trier offers a truly unforgettable experience for travelers seeking to delve into the heart of Germany's past while savoring the pleasures of the present.

Day 2: Trier - Piesport | Approx. 30 miles / 48 km

Today's cycling route along the banks of the Moselle promises a tranquil journey through picturesque wine villages, each brimming with charm and history. Setting off from Trittenheim, you'll have the opportunity to cross one of the oldest bridges in the area, offering views of the well-preserved ferry towers that stand as reminders of centuries past. Ascending into the vineyards above the village, you'll be treated to panoramic vistas of the Moselle Valley, where the gentle curves of the river wind their way through the lush green landscape. It's a perfect spot to pause and soak in the natural beauty of the region.

Continuing on, you'll pass through Neumagen-Dhron, the oldest wine village in Germany, where ancient traditions and modern life blend seamlessly. As you pedal onwards, you'll eventually arrive in Piesport, where an impressively restored Roman cellar dating back to the 4th century awaits you. Step back in time as you explore this historic cellar, marveling at its ancient architecture and imagining the generations of winemakers who have tended to their craft within its walls. It's a fascinating glimpse into the rich history of winemaking in the Moselle region and a fitting way to cap off a day of cycling through this enchanting corner of Germany.

Day 3: Piesport - Traben Trarbach | Approx. 25 miles / 40 km

Today, a side-trip to the famous wine village of Bernkastel-Kues beckons, offering a captivating glimpse into the region's rich heritage and scenic beauty. As you explore the charming market square, surrounded by picturesque half-timbered houses, you'll feel as though you've stepped back in time to a bygone era. Wander through the narrow cobblestone streets, admiring the intricate architecture and soaking in the lively atmosphere of this historic village. Don't miss the opportunity to sample some of the region's finest wines at one of the local wine taverns, where you can savor the flavors of the Moselle Valley in every sip.

Continuing on your journey, you'll come across the village of Zeltingen, known for its grand baroque buildings that are steeped in Moselle tradition. Take some time to wander through the streets, marveling at the elegant facades and soaking in the beauty of this idyllic setting. Whether you're exploring the charming streets of Bernkastel-Kues or admiring the grandeur of Zeltingen's baroque architecture, today's side-trip promises to be a memorable addition to your cycling adventure along the Moselle Cycle Path.

Day 4: Traben Trarbach - Cochem | Approx. 34 miles / 55 km

After departing from Traben-Trarbach in the morning, your journey leads you to the picturesque Moselle loop in Zell, known as the "Zeller Hamm." Here, nestled amidst countless wine slopes, sits the majestic Marienburg castle, which boasts a history spanning around 900 years. Perched atop the mountain ridge, the castle offers commanding views of the surrounding landscape, inviting you to step back in time and explore its historic halls and towers. As you pedal along, the charming taverns that dot the landscape beckon you to indulge in a wine-tasting experience, where you can sample the region's finest vintages and savor the flavors of the Moselle Valley.

Continuing on your route, you'll be treated to breathtaking views of Europe's steepest vineyard, the Calmont, before arriving in the town of Cochem. Here, amidst the idyllic surroundings of the Moselle River, stands the imposing Reichsburg castle, a symbol of German castle romance. Explore the castle's towering ramparts and fortified walls, and immerse yourself in the rich history and culture of this iconic landmark. With its historic fortress complexes and stunning natural beauty, Cochem offers a perfect blend of history, culture, and scenic splendor, making it a highlight of your cycling journey along the Moselle Cycle Path.

Day 5: Cochem - Koblenz | Approx. 30 miles / 49 km

After a few kilometers of cycling, you'll arrive in Moselkern, nestled along the banks of the Moselle River. From there, a short detour beckons you to the nearby fairytale-like Eltz Castle, a stunning medieval fortress that seems straight out of a storybook. Continuing on your journey, you'll pass through the charming village of Kobern-Gondorf, where historic half-timbered houses line the market square, inviting you to linger and explore. As you pedal between the Moselle River and the picturesque vineyards, you'll make your way towards Winningen before reaching Koblenz. In Koblenz, where the Moselle flows into the Rhine at the iconic Deutsches Eck, a captivating panorama awaits you. Take a ride on the cable car to Ehrenbreitstein Fortress, where you'll be treated to breathtaking views of the city and the surrounding landscapes (included in the tour). Explore the fortress and delve into the city's rich history through its numerous sights and landmarks, immersing yourself in its varied past.

As the day draws to a close, take a leisurely evening stroll through the charming streets of Koblenz, soaking in the atmosphere and reflecting on the unforgettable experiences of your cycling adventure along the Moselle Cycle Path.
